MEMORANDUM DECISION ENFORCING
CONFIRMATION ORDER AND DISCHARGE INJUNCTION

Oil States Industries, Inc., formerly known as LTV Energy Products Company ("Oil States" or the "Reorganized Debtor"), moves for an order (i) enforcing an order of confirmation and (ii) enforcing an order of discharge in respect to prepetition claims asserted against the Reorganized

the discharge and injunction provisions in the Plan, Confirmation Order and the Bankruptcy Code bar the Plaintiffs from asserting their prepetition claims against Oil States.

Contempt

Oil States' request for contempt sanctions is well founded based upon the extensive correspondence exchanged which demonstrated the tenuous bases for the bringing and continuation of the California Asbestos Litigation.

Contempt

Oil States' request for contempt sanctions is well founded based upon the extensive correspondence exchanged which demonstrated the tenuous bases for the bringing and continuation of the California Asbestos Litigations. However, in light of counsel's argument that the suits were filed in good faith and not, as Plaintiff's counsel pointed out in oral argument "to push the envelope," the Court denies the request for contempt sanctions subject to reconsideration in the event that the Complaints are not promptly withdrawn.

SETTLE AN ORDER CONSISTENT WITH THIS DECISION.
